Mining stakeholders to engage on health and safety

The Department of Mineral Resources together with the Mine Health and Safety Council (MHSC) will host the bi-annual 2016 Mine Occupational Health and Safety Summit under the theme: “Every Mine worker returning from work unharmed every day: Striving for zero harm”.

The summit aims to review the state of Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) and progress towards the achievement of the agreed milestones by tripartite stakeholders (Organized labour, Employers and the State) in pursuit of zero harm in the mining industry.

Members of the media are invited to attend the summit; scheduled to take place as follows:

Date: 17 and 18 November 2016
Venue: Gallagher Convention Centre, Midrand - Johannesburg
Time: 07h30

To RSVP contact Neliswa Chiloane on Media@dmr.gov.za or 012 444 3074/ 073 330 8220

For further media enquiries, contact Ms. Masanda Peter at mpeter@mhsc.org.za or 071193 9995
